John 13:1-17, 31b-35

One: May these words be to us our light and our life.

All: Thanks be to God.

Meditation

Litany

Rev. Adam Blons

- One: Just as the disciples gathered,
All: So too we gather tonight.
- One: We share bread that fills us up...
All: Bless this bread, O God.
- One: We share vegetables that give us nutrients...
All: Bless these vegetables, O God.
- One: We share fruit that gives us sweetness...
All: Bless this fruit, O God.
- One: We share spices that give us flavor...
All: Bless these spices, O God.
- One: Gather us in and unite us around your table. Amen.

Invitation

Communion Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Our Creator/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

O God, we thank you for your mighty acts of deliverance, when you enable us to cross over from despair to hope, from brokenness to wholeness, from death to life. Draw us near to one another through these meals that unite us with one another and with Christians in all times and places. Unite us in Christ's all-powerful love. Amen.

Hymn

Be Present at Our Table, Lord

#621

The musical score is written for soprano and bass voices. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "Be pres - ent at our ta - ble, Lord; be here and ev - ery - where a - dored; thy crea - tures bless, and grant that we may feast in par - a - dise with thee." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.
